Customer Reviews

The authors highlight the best attractions in Miami, which include airboat rides, where you might catch a glimpse of a hungry alligator. They also showcase the beauty of the city, by listing the most tropical places. My favorite spot is the Vizcaya Museum and Gardens. The book truly gives you the inside track to the very best spots to visit in South Florida. The authors even give the reader tips into places most tourist are unfamiliar with, like the Bakehouse Artist Complex. It's an amazing facility filled with dozens of artist studios in Wynwood's Art District. My husband is a resident artist at the Bakehouse.

Looking for unique locations to visit and things to do in the Magic City? As a Miami native, I can say this list is spot-on. I've bought this book as a gift for coworkers who have recently relocated to the city, and they loved it. There are even good ideas for locals in here.

We loved to go to the places that the book recommended, it has a description of the places that are very helpful!

awesome guide!!!!
