Camille spent over 12 years in Europe and the U. S. tracking down medieval manuscripts that contain the work of one little-known manuscript illuminator Pierre Remiet. At once a biography of Remiet, an art history, and a review of daily life in medieval times, this title will prove hard to classify: though it will end up in art collections, its value as a rich probe of medieval images, daily life, and history should not be overlooked. -- Midwest Book Review
