Gift to a youngster. He liked it!

I bought this and the Guinness Book of Records for my adult son and his son. they both LOVE these books! They love the oddball information in them. People are always amazed when my grandson can give them facts that most people would not know or think of. They make great reference books for school and is a wonderful way for parent child bonding when they read them together.

My son LOVES these books! He is 7 and loves everything like this, interesting animal and world facts. These books are full of things I didn't even know! I plan on buying most of the series for him! I also purchased the, 100 Deadliest Things on the Planet and he can't get enough of them!

Good
