Jesus Never Missed A Jump Shot

Synopsis

To live a life of service, non-judgment, and compassion, is to express the glory of God whom is within you. When we find Christ in our hearts, there is no longer competition or comparison. There is only the spirit of love and togetherness. Through dedication, hard work, and reverence, we become one with the spirit of the game.

Customer Reviews

This is an absolutely beautiful book. It is a potent illustration for children which exemplifies how to live a good and honorable and heart-centered life. The story is simple and the message profound. I highly recommend for parents wanting to imbue their children with kindness and goodness.

A great book for children, which inspires children to remember that the true magic lies within each and everyone of us.

Great story line and creative illustrations!! I cant wait to read to my daughter, I know she is going to love it!
