Customer Reviews

The Author graduated from a prestigious Leningrad State University as the philologist-linguist, has 40 years of job experience in different areas of art education, literature, music, dance theater, cinematography. She worked as an assistant producer in Russian cinematography, sound assistant of the movie productions, radio journalist and newspaper correspondent. She owned her own businesses and traveled the world. After fifteen years of teaching Argentine Tango, Elena designed original tango course to help people to improve the quality of lives and marriages. She incredible production shows were successfully performed at many great venues. People called Elena "Twinkles Feet," "Queen of Tango," "Tango Icon". She wrote several well-known books

Amazing! Wonderful! The book is a delight. The stories in this book are compelling and entertaining. There is lots of background historical & cultural info, but it focuses on the people as well. The author also talks about technique fâçÃ - Ã - the basics of lead-and-follow, the embrace, the connection and the walk. I think I fâçÃ - Ã - I'll be returning to and re-reading this book for several more years. I fâçÃ - Ã - I'd highly recommend it.

Very interesting book, well written and full of useful information.

Tried to download this book though the kindle lending library. Got only the table of contents but no text, but it charged my monthly lending allowance just the same. What a rip off!

Great book, good to read for anyone!!!

This is by far the best material I found for gaining a great introduction to Argentine tango. I bought the book without having read any reviews. I was really pleased to have come across something of this high quality.

Amazing! Wonderful! It is a very useful book about how leaders should lead their life & tango well and be successful. The stories in this book are compelling and entertaining.

This is a great book, revealing some mysteries and manipulations in tango culture
