Grant Collier has been working as a professional photographer since 1996. For his first book, entitled "Colorado: Yesterday & Today," Grant traveled throughout Colorado taking photos from the exact same spots that his great-great-grandfather, Joseph Collier, took his images over one-hundred years earlier. Grant recently released a sequel to the book called "Colorado Then & Now." He has also taken thousands of landscape photos of the Colorado wilderness, which have been published in seven of his books, including "Colorado: Moments in Time," "Colorado's National Parks & Monuments," and the children's book "Dreaming of Colorado." They're also published every year in his Colorado wall calendar. In recent years, Grant has spent countless hours capturing images at night. These photos are featured in "Collier's Guide to Night Photography," "Moab, Utah by Day & Night," "Arches National Park by Day & Night," and in his Starry Nights wall calendar. More information on Grant's photography can be found online at: gcollier.com and collierpublishing.com.
