Residents of northern New Mexico for more than 40 years, Don Laine and Barbara Laine have traveled extensively throughout New Mexico, the Rocky Mountains, and the Southwest, exploring the mountains, deserts, cities, and towns in search of unique outdoor adventures, hidden historic gems, and the perfect green chile cheeseburger. The Laines have authored or contributed to a number of Frommer's travel guides, including Frommer's EasyGuide to National Parks of the American West, and have also written Little-Known Southwest, New Mexico & Arizona State Parks, and Best Short Hikes in Arizona for The Mountaineers Books.

When you turn the first cover of this book, the first 30 pages are upside down and out of order. Furthermore, the pages are cut off on the top so you cannot even read the sentences. needs to do a better job with quality control. This book also has no photos at all.

What a great book! We used it for our trip to Santa Fe and Taos, and will use it again when we return to drive the Enchanted Circle. Easy to read with lots of great formation. A+!

Very useful guide. Much preferred over using the internet while traveling. Great restaurant picks Great reference as I am planning a trip this summer. Like the size, easy to carry/pack as it's not too large or heavy.

Very helpful in planning an adventure in the future from shopping, hikes, restaurants, hotels, and driving instructions.

Easy to use, clear directions for locating major attractions and overall very helpful

Used this on my trip. Very helpful.

Complete, interesting and useful
