Lymphedema: Sentenced To Life In Bed, But I Escaped

Synopsis

In the book, Sentenced to Life in Bed, but I Escaped, readers will be inspired to push themselves to beat the odds, accept the challenge, and reach their goals. The reader will see how Karen Goeller went from being the bed-ridden cancer patient to who she is today. Twenty years later Karen Goeller is living a full life, the life she was told she would never have. The reader will laugh, cry, cheer, and hope. The reader will realize that they too can achieve great things. It is an easy read that is often read cover to cover in one sitting.

Customer Reviews

This book was both interesting and inspiring. I appreciated the first-person perspective of a young woman who was dealing with a terrifying diagnosis and disease (malignant melanoma and its ensuing complications). Karen's triumph over a very difficult illness, her sheer will to recover, and her determination to resume a "normal" life made this a riveting read. Highly recommended.
