Customer Reviews

We own 4 "Cat Chat" cds and this is the best one. My girl (7) and boy (4) budding catechists love "Cat Chat" and make me play it in the car all. of. the. time. It is super-cheesy, which is why I didn't give it five stars, but like I said: the little ones love it and sing the songs, well, all. of. the. time. It is solid, beautiful, true to the Church stuff. Make sure you have a hankie, because when the little girl talks about saying good-bye to Mama in the hospital....well, you're going to lose it, if you have any heart at all.

Bought this for a long road trip and the kids still ask for it to play on the way to the grocery store. We will be buying many more - the 8, 6 and 4 year old all enjoy it and it is very sweet sincere and engaging and not to mention FAITHFUL to Church Doctrine and Teaching!

I bought this for my son just before he turned 4, and he loves it! We listen to it on the way to mass. I have even learned a few things I didn't know! I will definitely be buying more Cat Chats to help with my kids faith formation.

I was introduced to these CDs by a friend and now have 3 of the series. This one has great songs and they spoke to me, even as an adult. I highly recommend them to anyone looking for quality, Catholic material for their family to listen to. We especially enjoyed them on long car drives.

The song called "I wanna say yes" is a great teaching tool for young kids to learn how important it is to strive to do the Lord's Will. The song sounds good to all ages...not just little kids. It's catchy and fun and stirs up lots of great questions and discussion about the faith in the process.

I have 2 boys 8 and 6. This keeps them preoccupied in long car rides. They love the characters in the series and the songs. And they retain much of the things that they teach and they bring it up in conversations!

We absolutely love this CD! It was stolen from our car (I know-who would steal my daughter's Christian child music?!? Obviously, they needed it more than we do.) But, we are definitely replacing this as soon as possible!

Really weird cd. Primarily because they focus on one child and she discusses how her mother died when she was little and how she is still grieving. Besides, the questionable theology that accompanies this tangent, we had to explain to our impressionable six year old daughter who listened to it that, no, Mommy was not about to die. So we can't listen to this cd anymore because it always convinces our child that her mother is about to die. What was the point of this? What does it have to do with Mary (who obviously did not precede her child in death)? We have enthusiastically purchased catchat cds in the past. Our kids love them. But this one was terrible. I certainly want to advise parents not to allow their children to listen to it.
