The Complete Don Quixote (Eye Classics)

Synopsis

“Those giants over there... they’re waving at us!” “You’re mistaken, sef or, they are windmills...” The fantastic adventures of Don Quixote, his reluctantly faithful squire Sancho Panza, and their doomed quest to right the wrongs of the modern world, form one of the defining fables of what it means to be human: to love, to dream, to fail and above all, to laugh. “Rob Davis takes Cervantes’s timeless tale of tenacious heroism and delivers a seamless rendering worthy of its lauded source. His effortless line and lush colour palette perfectly capture the thrills, tragedy, and the humour of the original...” Publishers Weekly “Makes this 400-year-old novel seem new.” The Times Literary Supplement “Awash with sympathy and humour... A thoroughly loyal adaptation, full of enthusiasm for stories and storytelling.” The Guardian Recommended: YALSA Great Graphic Novels for Teens Nominated: Best Humour Publication and Best Adaptation Eisner Awards 2014

An extraordinary feat of transformation. It makes it feel as if Cervantes must have scripted the graphic novel. I got it to read my all-time favorite novel to my then 9-year-old daughter, since I knew I couldn't read her the novel in translation, and she doesn't yet know Spanish. The book is in no way adapted for a young audience, but I think it can be rewarding for readers of all ages.

A great version. I loved this book. I read the book and this is the best graphic novel on this topic.

This is quite well done. The tone is perfect, the artwork is well done and complements the text perfectly. It will make you want to read the book itself, too! You can tell the author/artist loved Cervantes and wanted to share.

I was skeptical that a "cartoon book" graphic novel would add anything to the classic. But it does and so much more. The line quality, sketchiness, background shapes, all bring you immediately into the story in a way that adds depth to the original. Buy the book. It's worth it.

Awesome! Reading concurrently for a spanish class alongside the spanish version. Great cartoons and a great way to read the story for those who don't want to take on the massive book that is Don Quixote.

Purchased as gift for granddaughter who is already a reader, and a lover of graphic novels. She approves. Don Quixote is important piece of our cultural heritage.

This is my favorite version of Don Quixote to use with older children and adults new to the story.

This is a unique edition of well-known story with all these pictures telling you a story. It's easy way to introduce your child to this classic tale. Very enjoyable reading for all ages.
