Customer Reviews

A fantastic book. Once I started reading it I couldn't put it down. Your characters are so real, you feel as if they are your friends. I can't wait to start reading another of your books. Thank you.

I enjoyed this book, but I liked the others better. This one took longer to get me involved in the characters. All in all, this is a great series and I look forward to reading the next book.

Was happy to see Tramp was welcomed back on the ranch by Cinder and Shannon. They shared quite the history in "Cinder's Bride". Finding Irene living in his house you just knew sparks were going to fly Having Ava and family living at the ranch did not help. She caused so much confusion. I enjoyed this series and highly recommend that you read all four books.

Kathleen does it again! I am loving the way she is building this little world full of wonderful characters! There are so many stories to be told in this sleepy little Texas town! Bringing more strong, interesting characters in a story where forgiveness and appreciation turn into friendship and love makes this story rich and fun along with a great ensemble secondary cast from prior books as well as an introduction of one of the most annoying families I have read in a very long time! Loved it all!

So loved this love story. This story touched on feelings most women have. Enjoyed the innocence, pride of these people. Even my preacher would approve of this story. Well written and think you. Have read all the others in this series. Looking forward to more.

As are the other "Brides" books, this one was a very good read!

I really enjoyed this book. I love the way the story weaves and includes all my favorites from the first 3 books. Definitely a good read.

I have enjoyed all 4 books in this series! Some nice twists and turns. Emotions up and down! I am going for number 5!!!
