Dara Bramson, a Miami native, is a co-author of MTV Roadtrips U.S.A. (Frommer's). She has freelanced for various South Florida publications and contributed to books, television segments and radio shows worldwide as an Associate Producer for CBS News' Travel Editor.

When offered a job in Miami, I had some research to do since I had never been to Miami before. I came across this book and it has been the most helpful book for getting introduced to Miami. I love all the insider details about the places in Miami. The book is broken out into easy to follow sections by interest and/or activity.

I started reading this on Friday, November 5 and was enthralled. Finished it over the weekend. This is phenomenal. Everything you ever need to know about inexpensive living in, and visiting Miami. She even has one of my favorite "all you can eat sushi" restaurants, that we hesitate to tell people about because it is SO good and they'll get too busy. LOL What a wonderful addition to any personal library! Her other book, MTV Roadtrips USA, is another winner. Can't wait for her upcoming book: The Insider's Guide to Miami.

Too much junk!

Complete and comprehensive coverage of the colorful crescendo coo coo.

As a Miami native, this book is incredibly helpful. All of my favorite places are included plus so many others that I never knew about. Always great to find cheap, good new places. A MUST read if you are visiting on a budget or living in Miami.
