Philippines Girls - The Good, The Bad, The Ugly.

Synopsis

The Philippines is the Pearl of the Orient, a country of warm smiles, delicious food, idyllic beaches, bustling cities and lush mountains. Here, three Westerners come for an adventure while three Filipinas dream for a chance at an unforgettable romance. Will they find what they are looking for?

The Good – Arlene is a single mother working as a sales clerk in Agoo, La Union. Just for fun, she signs up for online dating and to her surprise, an American, Elliot, takes an interest in her. As the months pass, their online relationship grows stronger but what if Elliot decides to come and see her? Will it be a disaster or a dream come true?

The Bad – In Manila, Janine is working hard to become successful while secretly dreaming of romance. When she goes to a bar, she meets an American named Brian and her naïve, untrained heart falls in love, at first sight. Dizzy with love and lust, she invites him to her apartment but that might just turn out to be a terrifying nightmare.

The Ugly – In Baguio City, Letty is a 19-year-old with a lazy eye and a heart that has lost hope in finding a man to love her. That changes, however, when Letty meets Andrew, a youth minister from New Zealand. With him, for the first time, Letty might just find out what it means to be beautiful.

This is the 3rd book by Rose Cuzzion that I've read. Her growth as a writer is visible. I think her books are not classified correctly; they are definitely works of fiction, even if they do include a lot of realism about life in the Philippines. This book is 3 short stories; each involves a relationship between a pinay and a Western man; each story includes some graphic descriptions of the interaction. If that is not what you want to read, skip it. If you are looking for realism, though, you will enjoy this author.

Rose writes with a unique style. A philippine girls view of the white knight coming to her country to see the beautiful ladies that live there.

I want more. These are stories that reach the heart and need to be told...and heard.

A good read. Honest stories about life.

It's a quick interesting read

I thought this was going to be an informational look at the girls in the Philippines, Turned out to be a very sexually graphic book. Couldn't get past the 2nd part. Should be rated XXX - Kinda disturbing.
