Afghanistan (Oxfam Country Profiles Series)

Synopsis

Momentous changes have taken place in Afghanistan since the first edition of this Profile was published (Afghanistan: A Land in ShadowÂ ª, Oxfam GB, 1998). Taliban extremists were tightening their grip on power, but the full implications of their regime were still to be seen, and the events of September 11th 2001, and their consequences for the people of Afghanistan, were as yet unimaginable. In this new edition, Chris Johnson brings the story up to date, examining the impact of international and regional power politics on the everyday lives of ordinary Afghans, in their struggle to survive and rebuild their country. Chris Johnson is one of the few Western journalists currently living and working inside Afghanistan. Researching for this new edition of her book, she traveled widely to interview members of communities living on the edge of survival. The text is illustrated by her own dramatic photographs, and supplemented by an annotated list of resources and an up-dated file of facts and figures. It is essential reading for anyone who is concerned about the prospects for peace in this war-weary country, and the implications for regional stability and - ultimately - for global security.

Customer Reviews

"An indispensable book for anyone wishing to gain an understanding of what has been done in and to Afghanistan in the last 30 years."--Asian Affairs, November 2005" A vivid, intelligent journey through post 9/11 Afghanistan and the wider region ... This is a deeply sincere and intelligent book in which the voices of ordinary Afghans describe their past and their future. The most powerful book on post 9/11 Afghanistan that you will be likely to read."--Ahmed Rashid, author "A devastating critique of US and UN post-conflict policies in Afghanistan"--Andrew Mack, The Liu Centre, University of British Columbia in Vancouver --This text refers to the Hardcover edition.

Chris Johnson is an independent consultant. She has worked in Afghanistan since 1996, first for Oxfam and then as Director of the Strategic Monitoring Unit (now AREU).

Very informative.

This book is written by a far left liberal who just wants to bash George Bush and all of his decisions
