Synopsis

As host of public television's New Yankee Workshop and master carpenter for the ever-popular This Old House series, Norm Abram shares his legendary woodworking skills and ingenuity with millions of viewers. Customer Reviews

I used to watch "The New Yankee Workshop" every week. I did not think then Norm had books. I found a collection here and now I am the proud owner.

Book arrived promptly and was in "very good condition", as was advertised. I was very pleased with this, my first purchase from Net Books Warehouse and would purchase again from this company. If you are as fond of watching Norm build projects as I am, you would love reading his comments in this book. I started reading it the minute it arrived and read about several projects before putting it down. I hope to purchase several more of his books in the future.

Item in great condition.

shipping was fast. thank you!

I bought this book as a gift and it seems to have been well-received and enjoyed. It's the sort of book that can be referred to many times.

This is another fine book by Norm. I have all of his books except one. Outdoor projects is good. I haven't had the time to build any of these yet, but there are some good projects in the book .

Not as detailed as I was expecting. I had to buy plans with ubilt
