Alison Inches has written over 80 books for children, including a bestseller, Go to Bed, Fred! She is also the author In the Kitchen with Miss Piggy, The Candy Bar Cookbook: Baking with America's Favorite Candy and Designs and Doodles: A Muppet Sketchbook. Alison lives in California with her husband, Ric and their son, Hunter. Hiroe Nakata has illustrated numerous picture books including Lucky Pennies and Hot Chocolate, Duck Skates, Duck Dunks and most recently, Shoe Bop! Encouraged in her art by her grandfather who is a painter in Japan, Hiroe graduated from the Parsons School of Design. She currently lives and works in New York City.

Not really much to feel.

this book misses the mark for me a bit but my 18mo old daughter is a big fan ... I felt like the texture of the pumpkin could have been more interesting and certainly the leaves could have been improved upon - where is the signature crinkle of a fall leaf ?!

My 13 month old loves this bookit's fall season now and he loves to associate what he sees around him with the illustrations in the book. The illustrations are lovely and it's one of my favorite books too ! Highly recommended !

This is a cute book. The words don't flow as easy as they could and some of the touch and feel portions are rather small. Another downside is how thin the cardboard pages are. Otherwise a very heartwarming harvest book.

Very cute! My daughter loves the pictures and all the colors

All three of my girls (ages 6, 4.5, and 2) LOVE this book. The pictures are so sweet, and I love the different textures offered.

Love the touch-and-feel element, but the book itself isn't super fun to read. Doesn't keep my child's interest for too long.

I first became aware of this book because they have it in the infant room at my daughter's daycare. One of the teachers mentioned to me that my daughter seemed to really love it and would bring it up to have it read to her, over and over. She was probably about 11 months at the time. Naturally, I had to get it! I could quickly see what she loved so much. It has beautiful illustrations, fun rhymes, and great textures for each page. Her favorite page by far was the one where she got to feel the "pie tin" that grandma is using to make pies and treats. I highly recommend this book, my daughter is now 18 months and she still loves it!
