Customer Reviews

I have a Webster's unabridged that I dearly love, but I read in bed. Paper books mostly. Pulling out the 20 lb dictionary is not easy. I have the regular dictionary on my Kindle but some words aren't in it. So I got the Collins. So far only one word did it NOT have and as it was an SF story the word may have been made up by the author. I have encountered this before. In any case I love this dictionary and highly recommend it if you encounter strange words in your reading like Pellucid or Geas.

I really recommend this Kindle dictionary; complete, clear definitions; great derivations and etymology; usually have definitions for things that even the Oxfords leave out, which I appreciate now and then.

Brilliant. Use it as my primary kindle dictionary. I've been through several and this is the one that I will stay with.

Not too user friendly, definitions are terse. I have replaced it with a standard form.

A really good Kindle dictionary. Has a wide range and works quickly and easily.

Comprehensive and useful compared to versions of Merriam-Webster available for Kindle.

Added to my Kindles to improve the selection of less common words over default dictionary.

OUTSTANDING! Much better than the other Kindle dictionary I have (and better than online dictionary searches by far), because this dictionary really does feel unabridged. Great product. Excellent price.
