Customer Reviews

The songs are listed in categories: SONGS OF ISRAEL SONGS IN YIDDISH SONGS IN LADINO SABBATH SONGS HANUKAH SONGS FESTIVAL SONGS SONGS IN ENGLISH THE PASSOVER SEDER ADDITIONAL TEXTS There is also an alphabetical index. Words are included and written in Hebrew with English translation, below. Disclaimer: I love the songs included. However, I am so not an expert on Jewish music, so my review is just based on the fact that this book serves my purposes very well. The words are there along with the music so when I get brave enough I can try to read/sing along. I am a Christian who loves Jewish music. I'm also studying Hebrew, and although I'm not very good at it, I thought I could practice the piano and learn Hebrew at the same time. That is working very well. It's almost a natural way to learn without as much stress as comes with my other methods of studying. I got to attempt learning some of these on a 22-day tour of Israel last year. Our group didn't do very well in our attempt to learn them. Anyone who heard us would have either laughed or cried. Our tour leader gave up on us very quickly, and I was thankful, because we were awful. I would like to learn some of these better now that I'm back home. I always want to know exactly what songs are included when I buy a book like this, so I will type them out here in case you feel the same way. Please ignore typos or alert me by comment so I can fix them.

This is my go to book for all occasions when I want to find Jewish music! An intelligent selection of everything from old Yiddish tunes to contemporary Israeli favorites and holiday songs is included with beautiful arrangements, lyrics and useful translations too. I bought this last copy for my granddaughters as a gift.

Great options the pianist loved the songs couldn't wait for shabbas to end to play some

I was very excited to get the book amazingly fast. Also, the songs are wonderful and the book contains a large selection. Great Seller.

Bought it for my grandson who loves playing piano and loves it.

I actually play an autoharp but have had 10 years of piano studies so can read music very well. I can easily adapt the piano arrangements to an arrangement suitable for the autoharp.

Many of the needed basic Jewish songs available. Good for professional composed music.

nice assortment of traditional music
