Believe In New Beginnings: A Stage IV Lung Cancer Survival Journey

Synopsis

This book is about a 49 year old woman, extremely healthy and driven, a daily runner, who suddenly feels tired after running about ½ block. Strange, but then at the same time her index fingers start feeling cold all the time. The hand surgeon declares “we will have to amputate the fingers.” Now I seriously pursue the tiredness problem and eventually am told I have Stage IV Lung Cancer. I don’t know how much longer I have on this earth, but I am determined to share my cancer experiences with others so that they may hopefully be spared unnecessary distraught and frustration. I had a great team of oncologists and am forever grateful to them. Every year I send my primary oncologist a thank you letter so he knows I’m still kicking, thanks to him and his team.

Customer Reviews

truthful and compelling story about an individual's battle with this deadly affliction. I felt as though I was living with her as she dealt with the daily problems and the psychological ups and downs on her path to recovery.
