This is the book for anyone struggling with their fear of job interviews. It deals with the entire process, from getting ready for job interviews to accepting job offers (or dealing with rejections) and everything in between. Using the REV (Relevant, Excellent, and Verifiable) approach to interview questions in how you respond to them and how to fashion your stories that you carry to the interviews using the SOAR approach are good ways the author has used to make this book practical to those getting ready for job interviews. It lists questions that are commonly asked but where most candidates fumble ("Tell me about yourself").
