This is a very basic book. It would have been better if it had a CD with it. (I like CDs with Music Books). But when I compare this with "Mel Bay Christmas Songs for 5-String Banjo [Paperback]" by Janet Davis, I find Janet's book much better from a playing standpoint. Mel Bay's book is a takes a wider range of playing skills, from easy(ish) to a bit more advanced (intermediate), it has several versions of each song and comes with a CD.

This was for my son and wife to play duets. It has the banjo tabs and the piano music, so each instrument has its own part. I love hearing them play these Christmas songs, and he can sight read most of them, which is great!
