good map. Note that state divided in half to be able to provide detail which is what i was after since wanted to explore backroads of the Rockies. Would have given 5 stars if it had been twice as big and all on one side.

I am disappointed that the state map is not printed on one side but uses both sides.

VERY easy to read and has good information about sights is included. It made it VERY easy to plan my trip and know I'm seeing all the things I want to see.

This map is easy to read, but the trade-off is that it lacks a tremendous amount of detail that would be very useful when trying to actually navigate around the state. Some pretty significant roads are left off the map entirely.

fast and as described

Easy to read , easy to fold

I am planning a future move to Colorado, and needed a map to show me where cities and towns were in relation to one another, specifically between Loveland and Colorado Springs. It is not a city map, but shows all the interstates and where everything is. Just what I was looking for.

Map is split in a very strange area.
