Customer Reviews

Wow, just wow - this was an awesome, exciting and enthralling installment in The Last Pendragon Saga that I just couldn't put down. I love the characters - Cade, Rhiann, Goronwy, Hywel, Dafydd, Talieson, Geraint - Sarah brings them to life so well and I feel like I know them each of them. There is plenty of action and battles against demons, Sidhe and Saxons that makes this book such an entertaining read. Of course, Wales continues to be the back-drop against which the story is set - I feel like I am starting to know every mountain, narrow path, forest, hill fort, river and weather patterns, sufficiently, that if I went there, it would be familiar. Sarah's minutiae attention to detail makes her stories feel or the more real and I love been transported back into the ancient world of Wales. I highly recommend this very exciting series.

I won't write a separate review of each one of these books and, I have read them all. If you like fantasy, and magic then, this is the series for you. I normally read Sci-Fi but now and then like a change into fantasy, medieval lore etc. I really enjoyed this series.
