Customer Reviews

Three versions of this piece were used for our performance. I only had to make one note change, per the conductor's research/instruction. The book itself was a perfect size for rehearsal, although a bit small for mounting in a performance folder. Others complained of the smaller size of the notation, but I did not have that problem.

Ink is very dark and half notes look like quarter notes in many places throughout the piece. Also one page has the alto section printed as singing in the bass clef blatant error. This is the Alfred publishing company edition that printed it. There is another publishing company for Kalmus and that in is light but at least the note values are clear.
