Customer Reviews

I was so lucky to have the chance to read Charity: A New Beginning. I read the first Charity book, Charity Moon, when I was in the eighth grade and I fell in love with the series instantly. After reading the previous six books, I was not expecting to read another book about Charity and Levi, but I was happy I did. Charity: A New Beginning is almost a flash back to Charity Moon. I had a very great twist on the classic Charity and Levi romance. I was such a great read. It had me laughing and smiling and almost crying a little. It truly is a book that I did not want to put down. Don't forget to read the first six books first! They are just as good.

Charity: A new beginning was spellbinding and addictive. DeAnna Kinney created an impressive addition to her series. The storyline was suspenseful and hypnotic. You think you know what happens next but bam the author takes you on a journey of a lifetime. You will be consumed mind, body and soul. The chemistry between the main characters was undeniable. Resistance only made them stronger. Charity is a force to reckon with she is strong and determined and a loveable character. Deanna Kinney I am in awe. Truly Amazing. Five Stars guaranteed.

This book was definitely a twist. It takes the readers back to see Charity and her friends in a way that's new and we may not remember. This is a perfect book for all the fans of this series. If the series hasn't been read before, start now just to get to this one.
