Manners In God's House: First Prayers And First Missal

Synopsis

With this guide, your child will learn to behave respectfully before our Lord in the Eucharist. This necessary guide to Mass teaches children how to behave well in church. It outlines reverent behavior for little boys and girls, with quaint pictures and an easy “9 Rules for Visitors to the King.” It provides an attractive, fully-illustrated mini-missal for the Mass. It also details essential Catholic prayers, breaking them down phrase-by-phrase for easy comprehension and memorization – the perfect teaching tool to help you pass the Our Father, Hail Mary, and other indispensable prayers on to your child. This hardcover book is the perfect shape and size to bring anywhere – in church, the schoolroom, home, and wherever else your child can think to bring it. Its sturdy hardcover will withstand the rough and long treatment it is sure to receive from frequent use. Manners in God’s House, combined edition of three books, originally issued in 1950, includes: Let’s Pray: First Prayers for Little Catholics: provides phrase by phrase, in-depth explanations of the Sign of the Cross, Our Father, Hail Mary, and more, encouraging young readers to connect deeply with these universal prayers. Good Manners in God’s House: uses beautiful full-color pictures to show how to act in church, from the moment you enter and cross yourself with holy water until you pray thanksgiving after Mass. It also teaches children interior prayer and meditation, to bring their soul closer to God before Mass. My Little Missal in Pictures: illustrates each stage of the Mass; its captions help children appreciate the meaning of each part of the Mass, from start to finish. Its attention-grabbing comparisons between the Mass and the Scripture provide inspiration for even your smallest missal-carrier. Â

Customer Reviews

Shipped faster than I expected and arrived faster than another book from a different seller that I'd bought the same day, but had shipped afterwards. Pleasantly surprised. This book is great, the illustrations remind me of a sort of Nostalgic Golden Book kind of feel, but it's perfect for teaching my children what I'd like to concerning Mass and manners inside the church, and basic prayers/things of that nature.

Got it for the 5 year old's Easter basket and she loves it. It gives a wonderful explanation of the Trinity, breaks down prayers we say to a child's level, and covers why we behave kindly and reverently in mass. It is from the 1950s so some of it is not modern but I honestly prefer it. We take it to mass with us and read it in the car. I love the sweet illustrations, too! Great book to have for your little ones.

Thankful this is back in print! Would that every parent could have this for their child! It is also a good reminder for adults who did not grow up understanding that the King of Kings is REALLY in the house!

Perfect for the grandchildren at Mass?

This book is a gen. The pictures are so sweet and the content is even sweeter. It goes over the meaning of the sign of the cross, the Our Father line by line, the Hail Mary line by line, the meaning behind various parts of the Mass, as well as proper behavior during Mass. Thank you, Neumann Press for publishing a beautiful and traditional book for our Catholic children.

Nice book. It is very simple but a good book for young minds and souls.

Super sweet book! We love to sit and read this one for quiet time. Beautifully simple sirituality for littles.

Beautiful book! My 3 year old spends a lot of time looking at it and praying with it. I highly recommend this for small children!
