Customer Reviews

"We are in Bill Leonard's debt for accomplishing this almost impossible feat—a one-volume Baptist history—in an admirable fashion." --Baptist History and Heritage Journal
"With this new book, Leonard has done a tremendous service to all who teach Baptist history courses in colleges, seminaries, and divinity schools." --CHOICE, Current Reviews for Academic Libraries
"Suitable for both the classroom and the living room, this volume reflects a sensitivity to Baptist diversity at a time when Baptists are increasingly polarized. As a one volume introduction to Baptist history, Baptist Ways is a must-read and a worthy successor to previous Baptist surveys." --Bruce Gourley, The Baptist Studies Bulletin

I read this book for my Baptist Heritage class. It was very informative and clearly shows that Baptists throughout history were certainly not a homogeneous group.

Love this book! A must have!

This is a great read but it is long and sometimes it feels like it drags on but it really helps you learn the history of the Baptists.

I received the book in excellent condition.

Bill Leonard's writing on Baptist history is the standard. His research is irrefutable and his writing style is wonderfully approachable for both academics and laymen.

I found this book well written with many additional facts. Good book to read specifically in the Northern American history portion.

A wealth of information.

nice book thanks
