Customer Reviews

The book is no frills and has good information, but I was really distracted by numerous typos/spelling errors in the beginning chapter on the history of New Zealand. It kind of makes me wonder whether the websites and other information contain correct spelling. I like the book for concise information, but if you are looking for a travel guide which delivers more photos and fuller descriptions, then find another one. For my purposes, this is all I wanted and needed, so I am relatively satisfied. The information is good and so far this book has been helpful for planning my trip.
