Jordan (Bradt Travel Guide)

Synopsis

With its stunning Red Sea resorts and Blue Flag beaches, world famous heritage sites, deserts and sophisticated capital, Jordan is becoming an increasingly popular holiday destination. Bringing this fabulous country to life through words, Carole French discusses Jordan's history and culture, eco projects, wildlife and marine life, desert treks, markets and malls. With chapters on the main cities and regions of Jordan, from Amman, to Jeresh, Madaba, Aqabab and the Red Sea, this guide will aid anyone planning their first trip to this magnificent country.

Customer Reviews

'A guide to take you through the exotic mix of old-fashioned bazaars, tiny streets, desert treks and religious sites.' Food & Travel magazine Recommended reading by Wanderlust Travel Magazine provided necessary information at a great price.

very good for travel though it is from an British perspective.

A very good travel book. Well balanced information.
