The Crowbar Hotel

Synopsis

Iron Legs Burk is back with "The Crowbar Hotel: By Freight Train Across Canada," a two-fisted sequel to the award-winning "Travelogue From an Unruly Youth" from 2007. Author D. C. Jesse Burkhardt's alter ego, Iron Legs Burk, roams the North American continent north of the USA border with his traveling partner, The Spider Rider. The pair blast from Vancouver Island to Toronto on freight trains, with a series of wild adventures and almost constant run-ins with Canadian police that become almost comical ~ except for the threat of deportation.

Customer Reviews

Again an enjoyable read about jumping on and off trains, this time largely in Canada. Fun and easy to get through. But again some repetitive tedious "romance" spoiled the book- halfway through I was wishing the beloved Maria would disappear forever. For this reason only 4 stars.....

this by far is the best adventure book I've ever read, and what makes it the best adventure book in my opinion, it's all about trains and a true story. To the author, thank you I really enjoyed it
