Laird Of Twilight (MacDougall Legacy Book 2)

Synopsis

Since her childhood, Lady Lillas Cameron has been skeptically waiting for a prophecy regarding a mysterious man she is to wed to come true. And then the very man described by the seer is introduced as her escort to a doomed marriage--and is also the man who has arranged this disastrous alliance. Brooding and handsome, she cannot help the sparks of awareness he triggers. Nor can she ignore the deep desire to be true to herself. Dirk MacDougall, Lord of the Isles, is to deliver a worthy bride to his Norse enemy, who also happens to be his distant cousin, in an alliance that will hopefully bring peace to his country. The only problem is, he finds himself quite enamored by the spirited and charming lady. When one kiss leads to another, desire to claim her as his own takes hold. If the alliance is broken, a mighty battle will be waged across Scotland begging the question: is love worth the price of war?

Customer Reviews

I really enjoyed reading this book. It held my interest all the way through. I think anyone who enjoys a good Scottish romance novel would enjoy this book as well.

The 2nd book in the series was just as entertaining as the first. Looking forward to the next installment in the series.

A wonderful captivating story.

Captivating

Fantastic always like her books and look forward to her next one

The characters were exactly the way I like them. The hero was strong and demanding while the heroine was beautiful and interesting!

Good book

Good read
